July presentation

Geoff G is giving a presentation on an often overlooked part of the hobby - small German States silver coins.

I started this collection about eight years ago when I purchased an Uncirculated silver kreuzer from Wurttemberg at the Fostoria Coin Show.

Next, I built a want list from the 19th Century World Coins book. Now I buy dime-sized silver German States coins. The collection has grown to more than 70 pieces from various centuries. - Geoff

June presentation

John Roberts gave a presentation on the sutler tokens and scrip used at Camp Chase, a Union post and Confederate prisoner of war camp on Sullivant Ave. marked now by the graves of 2,260 prisoners who died of disease and wounds there during the Civil War.

The camp had two sutlers, N.B. Marple and William Jamison. Only a handful of their tokens are known, Robert said. The are listed as R-9, two to four known. "There's no such thing as a common sutler token," Roberts said.

The Confederate cemetery, he noted is reputed to be haunted by the Lady in Grey who walks among the graves looking for her lover who did not return from the war. John Roberts noted, there are two John Roberts in the cemetery, but they are not his ancestors.

Labor Day show

Because our show will not have a traditional auction or a book seller this year, we will have a silent auction and a member book sale.

Patty Cass asks:

1. Please bring a list of your silent auction items to Mike or Charles.
2. Please bring your list of books to Marie for the CONA Club Book Sale.
3. There are several items that we still need for the Youth Treasure Hunt. Denny prepares 50 binders so we need 50 samples of 12 items. At this point, we still need:

19 Barber Dimes

18 War Nickels

50 of a different type of coin (So far we have Ike dollars, Washington Quarters, Barber Dimes, Lincoln Pennies, Penny Errors, German 5 Pfennig, French 20 Centimes, British Half Pennies, and War Nickels.)

We need ten different types of coins and then two types of currency for this year's hunt. We will buy some Polymer notes but I would also like 50 star notes - this is a good educational sample. So if you have some star notes that you would like to donate, we might be able to get 50 together.

Counterfeit Money Is Made in Prison Cell

Salt Lake City, Utah, May 19.—A warrant was signed today for the arrest of John Martin on a charge making counterfeit money in—of all places—the State Penitentiary.

The warrant will be served when Martin leaves the State prison Monday after winning clemency from the Board of Pardons. He was convicted of murder as "Blackie Gibson," but convinced officials he was not Gibson.

Federal authorities said a crude stencil and other counterfeiting implements found in Martin's cell were the source of bogus bills passed by released convicts.

One Dollar Bill Raised To Ten Here

Rumors have been current in the city for the past week that counterfeit money has been put into circulation, but an investigation disclosed the fact that only a single spurious bill has so far been discovered.

A client of one of the local banks presented a raised bill for redemption, claiming to have obtained it at the bank, and to retain his good will he was given a genuine bill in exchange, although the officials had no positive proof that the counterfeit bill had passed through their hands.

The bill in question, a one dollar silver certificate, has been raised to a ten dollar one by the clever use of ink and acids. The face of George Washington, which appears on one side, had been made over into a passable likeness of Andrew Jackson, which appears on the genuine ten dollar bills. The large figure 1 had been effaced with acid and the number 10 substituted for 1 on the four corners of each side of the bill. And old and crumpled one dollar note had been used, lessening chances of detection for the guilty party.

Proprietors of groceries, filling stations, etc., in the outlying districts are warned to scrutinize closely all bills.
